An illustration of a classroom scene. A female teacher with brown hair, wearing a pink shirt, stands behind a wooden table. On the table, a young boy in a blue shirt is cutting paper with scissors. Other children are playing around the table: a girl is building with blocks, a boy is holding a large orange 'X' over his head, and another boy is sitting on the floor with a teddy bear. A girl is also sitting on the floor, reading a book. The background is a solid light orange color.
